

THE ROLE OF PARTNERSHIPS IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE NEW URBAN AGENDA

Exploring how joint action by national governments, local governments, and organised civil society can make cities more inclusive, safe, resilient and sustainable

A Side Event at the Second Session of the Preparatory Committee for the United Nations Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development (Habitat III)

14. April 2015, 1:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

About the Event

The proposed side event highlights the role of partnerships in the implementation of the New Urban Agenda. It will explore in practical terms how partnerships of national governments, local governments and the organised civil society can contribute to making cities more inclusive, resilient and sustainable. The side event will focus on how successful partnerships can be built to support good urban governance and inclusive planning, social development as well as inclusive economic development to create jobs and foster poverty reduction. The extensive experience from the broad spectrum of Cities Alliance members in supporting such partnerships approaches will provide an important contribution to shape the new urban agenda and the asset of inclusive partnerships for its implementation. The interventions as well as discussion with the audience will outline steps involved in building trust and common vision that makes such partnerships operational and successful, and reflect on the lessons learned.

Hosts

The side event is hosted by the Cities Alliance Partnership consisting of UN-Habitat, United Cities and Local Governments (UCLG), German Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ), Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ), French Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Development (MFA), Shack/Slum Dwellers International (SDI), Habitat for Humanity International (HFHI), UK Department for International Development (DFID) and Swiss State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO).

About the Cities Alliance Joint Work Programme for Habitat III

Cities Alliance is a global partnership of local authorities, national governments, non-governmental organisations, foundations and multi-lateral organisations working together to ensure that cities increasingly are characterised by effective local government, active citizenship, and delivering improved and responsive services to the urban poor. It is as such, an example in itself of partnership across a spectrum of partners.

The Cities Alliance partnership has set up a Joint Work Programme to prepare inputs to the Habitat III Conference while discussing priorities and messages key to the Post-2015 Agenda. Outcomes from this side event will contribute to the discussion within the Habitat III preparatory process towards a New Urban Agenda and especially its implementation.
